

Newsletter

Wednesday, June 26, 2007

We wish you safe and hassle-free journeys home!

<http://www.resnetsymposium.org/resnet2007>

Heard in the Halls

"Housing is a really hard thing to break into."

"MacBooks don't crash. Next question?"

"I'm not sure I can pack those stress ball light houses. I'll try to squeeze them in."

"Where is sea world?" "By the sea, I think."

"I'm mixing wine and Shamu - it's not as good as you would think it would be."

"The tuna industry at one point wasn't doing well, I suppose you could say, it was floundering. Yikes, I might get canned for that one".

Passports

U.S. citizens will need passports to re-enter the United States from Canada after attending ResNet 2008. For details on getting a passport, please visit <http://travel.state.gov/>

Program Highlights and Events

Breakfast - 7:00am - 8:30am - Café Ventanas

Join us for ResNet 2008 - June 21-25, 2008 at University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada. For more information about next year's conference, please visit <http://www.resnetsymposium.org/resnet2008/> Mark your calendars and start thinking of ways you can become involved with the conference!

If you would like to assist with the Program Committee next year, please contact Carrie Levow (carrie_levow@ncsu.edu).

This episode of the ResNet Symposium was brought to you by the letters U, C, S, and D, and the number 14.

We would like to thank the University of California, San Diego Host Committee for all of their hard work in making this a wonderful Symposium on their campus!

Erik Strahm, Co-Chair
Arianna Pilram, Co-Chair
Brandon Enright
Crys Harris
Tom Machado
Parrish Nnambi

Weather Report

Wednesday: Partly cloudy, with a high of 76° and a low of 60°, with a 0% chance of precipitation.

Thursday: Partly cloudy, with a high of 74° and a low of 62°, with a 0% chance of precipitation.

Wouldn't you rather have seasons than have the same beautiful weather every day?

Shamu Rocks!

Newsletter edited by Kathy Hausmann

*Assisted by Amanda Grainger
Mike Hachtel*

Valerie Polichar
Chuck Rose
Eileen Silva
Jason Ye
UCSD students
All of the others who made this conference possible!

We would also like to thank Gayleen Gray, the Program Committee, Judi Rennie, the PDS Faculty, and all of the presenters for making this conference such an educational and enjoyable experience.

Also, a very special thanks to Dave Futey for his years of participating in and guiding the ResNet Symposium in every possible role, helping to make the conference what it is today. He will be missed on the Steering Committee.

Congratulations again to Ian Tegabo from University of California, Berkeley and Esther White from Barnard College, the 2007 recipients of the Senti-Merriman Scholarship.

Checkout Procedure

To check out of the residence halls, please bring your key to the ResNet Information Desk. The desk will be staffed on Wednesday morning beginning at 4:00am. There will be a $100 charge for keys that are not returned.

Photo Gallery

To view pictures taken at ResNet (and post the ones you took), please visit <http://resnetsymposium.its.yale.edu/gallery2/main.php>