Come early or stay late

We have a special discount arranged with Air Canada that extends three days prior to and after the dates of the conference and we will also extend our on-campus and off-campus accommodations to you before and after the conference. Our web site includes links to Fredericton Tourism and to New Brunswick Tourism as well as a link to a document that outlines some great pre- and post-tours for you to take in. If you have any questions about what to see and do, please let us know: there are so many options for traveling in Atlantic Canada. So bring your family or friends, or plan to explore on your own, either way think about coming early or staying late to experience the beauty, culture, and history of Atlantic Canada!

Canadianisms

To help prepare for your visit to Canada, we thought we'd provide some insight into speaking "Canadian" ☺ Let's start with some true Canadian classics:

Eh?: Don't you think? Conversational device that allows an unconfrontational Canadian to turn a statement into a poll of opinion.

Canuck: Nickname for a Canadian

Two-four: Case of beer containing 24 bottles. We also quite often refer to the long weekend in May as the "May Two-Four Weekend".
